Post Office Destroyed

The town of Blaimore suffered from another rather serious conflagration on Saturday morning last, when the fiery elements destroyed Lewis & Burrows' poolroom, the offices of Messrs. Trono, Pozzi and Lyon, and the post office.

The fire originated in the southwest corner of the pool-room, following a terrific explosion, which could be heard practically all over the town, and which caused the flames to spread rapidly through the large building and into the adjoining buildings. An Italian citizen was the first to notice the flames and raise the cry of "fire!" Mayor Lyon was awakened by the sound of the explosion, and in a few seconds noticed the reflection of the flames and immediately rushed to the school building where he rang out the emergency call. Volunteers with three sets of hoses were quickly on the scene and three great streams of water were soon brought into effect on the opposing elements, which had gained such headway that the destruction of the eastern half of the town seemed imminent. However, the flames were confined to the buildings in which the fire had started, and so complete and effective was the work of the fighting apparatus that the outer walls of a building not two feet away were not even scorched.

Considerable of the mail matter was removed from the post-office, as well as the safe and some of the fixtures, but practically all of the mail which had been distributed into boxes the night previous was destroyed. Many files containing receipts and records in connection with the institution were also destroyed.

Considerable of the furniture and fixtures of the adjoining offices were gotten out before the flames had gained a determined hold on these places.

The explosion which preceded the fire seemed to have occurred in the pool room, a short distance from a heating stove, and had such force as to break through the wall leading to Mr. Lyon's office, there upsetting a table and other materials over the floor. The cause of the explosion can hardly be determined, but it is generally believed to have been the work of some outside agency.

The poolroom building was owned by Mar On, a Chinaman, and was valued at upwards of $3000, on which but $1500 insurance was carried. Lewis & Burrows carried some insurance on their equipment, which included a large bowling alley, three or four large billiard tables, barbers' chairs and utensils, etc.

The postoffice building was owned by H. E. Lyon, and we understand was partially covered by insurance.

Every credit is due the skill of the firemen in having successfully confined the fire to such a small area, for at first few people held out any hope for the saving at least that block between Seventh and Eighth Avenues.

The fire started about 4.20 a.m., and the all-out signal was rung in about 7 o'clock.

E. I. Crane, who had been at Fernie to assist DiCastro's war bulletin on its aerial flight, returned to town on Saturday last.

In the absence of Rev. W. H.
Munaster on Sunday last, the Presbyterian pulpit was occupied both morning and evening by Rev.
James Lang, of Passburg.

The Women's Guild of the Presbyterian church met in the Mission Hall on Wednesday of this week. The meetings are now being held weekly.

The Kaiser's Despair

(From our Special Correspondent in Berlin.)

It is rumored in Germany that the Emperor, who now realizes that his number is up, is accordingly making his will, revoking all wills made heretofore.
The will is said to read as follows:
"THIS IS THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF ME, WILHELM, the Emperor and King of Germany, recognizing that I am fairly up against it, and expecting to meet with a violent death at any minute at the hands of brave Johnny Bull, or the Bully Caucasian, hereby make my last Will and Testament.

I appoint the Emperor of Austria to be my sole executor, with permission of the allies.

1. I give and bequeath to France the territories of Alsace and Lorraine (as this is only a case of returning stolen property, I don't deserve any credit for it, and am not likely to get it either.)

2. To Servia I give Austria.

3. To Russia I give Turkey, for the Tsar's Christmas dinner.

4. To Belgium I should like to give all the thick cars, black eyes and broken noses, that she presented me with when I politely trespassed on her territory.

5. To Admiral Delville I give all my dreadnoughts, submarines, torpedoes, boat-destroyers and fleet of finkers generally — what's left of them. He's bound to have them in the end, so this is only anticipating events.

6. To John Bull I give what's left of my army as his General French seems so handy at turning my men into sausage-meat, I suppose he means to finish the job with his Kitchenier, the champion German sausage-cooker.

7. To the British Museum I leave my famous untasteful, souvenir of the greatest swanker in this or any other age.

8. To Mrs. Pankhurst and the wild women I leave my nailed list. They'll find it useful, no doubt, when they resume their militant tactics.

9. To Sir Ernest Shackleton I leave the Pole. I've been up to it for so long that I regard it as my own property.

(Signed)

H. M. Wilhelm, G.R.

Lord of the land, sea and air.

(Not forgetting the sausages and lager beer.)Signed by the above named, Wilhelm as his last Will in the presence of one his ministers and five executors, present at the same time, who in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have here-unto subscribed our names as witnesses, Baron von Suerekrant, Graf von Munchelagerber.

Patriotic Society Formed at Bellevue

A large and representative gathering convened in the vacant store opposite the Bellevue hotel on Tuesday evening to discuss the formation of some association to raise funds and collect clothing for the Red Cross and Belgian Relief.

After a few moments discussion, it was decided to form the Bellevue Patriotic Society, with W. P. Williams as chairman, and A. J. Kelly as secretary-treasurer.

Many and varied were the suggestions and questions asked during the evening.
The ladies being particularly to the fore regarding a head branch of the Red Cross society, this the meeting decided should be left to the ladies, and it seems altogether likely that they will get real busy shortly.

An executive composed of Mesdames Hallworth, Evans and Williams, and Mr. T. M. Barnett (lucky man), was selected. All business will be transacted by the officers and the executive.

How the War Started

(By Matt)

Well, you see, food was scarce and Austria got so Hungary that Germany said "I'll serve." So he went Russian to get a piece of France, but being tripped up by Belgium, slipped on some Greeks, fell down, pretty near broke up the China and got in Dutch so that Brussels sprouted up with indignation and of course he belched his way in and it is altogether likely that in the long run all the nations will sit down quietly and have a nice little feed of Turkey.

Dr. Moore and C. W. Johnston, of Bellevue, were Blaimore visitors on Thursday afternoon.

A NIGHT OF TERROR

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little remedy will enable you to avoid all this.
Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand.

Cowley Happenings

Hallowe'en passed away quietly in Cowley. Ha, ha!

We understand that some more of our town boys will leave soon for the front.

D. R. McIvor has returned from the east, his mother having somewhat improved.

Ted Baines met with a rather painful accident last week, which confines him to his house.

Rumor has it that Bobby Burns will be in Cowley soon, to take a hand with some of our pugilists.

Messrs. Peel, Elton, White and Bennett spent the better part of last week in Macleod, sitting on the jury.

Mrs. Biddell has returned home after spending the bigger part of the summer in Calgary at her mother's.

The Cowley readers of 'The Enterprise' have been looking forward with interest to that 'series of writings on temperance' by Mr. L. H. Putnam. What's the matter? We hope Mr. Putnam is not ill! The subject is such as might affect anyone.

A terrible wind storm prevailed in Cowley on Saturday night, which turned things upside down in general. Huggies were lifted up on buildings, water tanks vent out on the prairie, gates went visiting neighbors, and many other things changed places.

The war still continues, and the ladies still work, clothing both old and new coming in, and the ladies are very thankful to those who are helping so well. They have collected close to $500.00 and a store of clothing, and yet the good work continues, and anyone still wishing to help on the good work has only to hand in their contribution to the secretary of the Ladies' Institute and it will be attended to—only state what you want it applied to, the ladies at the front of the Belgian Relief Fund.

A nephew of King George has been killed in battle, this being the first of the royalty to fall. Relatives are going into mourning only for three weeks, after which they will carry into effect the agreement made at the commencement of the war, that none should go into deep mourning for any who fell in battle other than wear a band of white ribbon about the left arm. It was first spoken of by Queen Mary, as so many of the poor of England copy from the royalty, and it would be a saving of money as well as showing to the nation that they could be loyal by not mourning for those who lost their lives for the Empire.

Bellevue Happenings

A movement is on foot to form a rifle corps locally, but we believe the government cannot supply the necessary rifles.

Mrs. Nettie, mother of Mr. J. B. Ridd, has been visiting at the Southern hotel for the past few days and returned to Lethbridge on Tuesday.

William Randall, father of our local barber, R. F. Randall, is spending a few weeks here. Mr. Randall is a resident of Frazee, Minnesota, and is quite taken up with Bellevue.

License Inspector Whitaker spent Wednesday in town sizing up the hotel. The Patriotic Society is grateful to Dave Walker (Wes Scott), our local painter, for the splendid signs painted on the society's headquarters.

BLAIRMORE, ALBERTA

We notice that a meeting of the license commissioners to consider the applications of J. B. Ridd for a license for the Southern hotel, and Mike Rossi for a wholesale license for Blairmore, will be held in Macleod on November 20th.

A previously unknown sander has been unearthed in the person of Mr. E. Mitchell, of Nottingham, Canada. We have it on his own authority that he thought nothing of lifting 300 pounds when twelve years old. How much can you lift now, E.?

"Mac's Place" is the latest addition to our town. E. R. MacKenzie has taken over the cigar stand in Randall's pool-room, and will open up the end of this week as a light lunch counter, along the lines of Ingram's in Fernie. Coffee (periodically) sandwiches, cakes, pies, fruits, etc., will be served at nominal rates, and a full line of candies and cigars will be on hand at all times.

Yanto Evans, who left for Castor last week, blew back on Monday night. His remarks re Castor coal mines are rather too emphatic for publication, but from what we gather conditions up there are awful, 30 to 60 cents a day and you are doing well, 9 inches of water to work in and no wash-house. Jack Crawford and Jack Hamilton are up there with one object in view—to get back to Bellevue.

Frank Happenings

Rev. Mr. Hart, of Hillcrest, was a visitor here on Tuesday last.

Mr. T. Bradshaw, of Hillcrest, was a visitor here on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McKinnon were visitor to Coleman on Wednesday.

Miss Ada Allsop, of Bellevue, was visiting friends in town on Sunday last.

Mr. Boyes, of Pincher Creek, has moved his family down, and will reside here in future.

Frank's basket-ball team slipped it over the Bellevues on Thursday in a score of 26 to 17.

Mrs. D. S. Howe is at Pincher Creek this week, on business in connection with the Eastern Star.

Rev. Mr. Cook, of Bellevue, was in town on Tuesday evening and refereed the basketball game.

Mr. Howe received another fine shipment of meats this week, fresh from the slaughter house.

H. T. Lloyd was a business visitor here on Wednesday, accompanied by Mr. Berry, of the General Electric Co.

Mr. Taylor, representing a boiler insurance firm, was in town on Monday, inspecting boilers in the local power plant.

Several of Frank's dancing artists are getting their costumes ready for the masquerade ball at Bellevue on Monday next.

Walter Scott, of Bellevue, was down on Tuesday measuring up Captain Marsh's recruits in the hope of arranging a game for the near future.

Several pranks were pulled off in town on Hallowe'en night. Gates were pulled off and carried away, wagons were run away from their regular standing place, and Mr. Simpson's car travelled as far as the Sanatorium. But, alas, Sunday morning saw the brave chumps pulling that car home again with the assistance of a horse. Too bad that somebody should have let the cat out of the bag!

Marsh's recruits lined up in front of the Frank Star Basketball Team on Tuesday evening. Although the recruits expected defeat, they thoroughly surprised the star team. The recruits had six penalties in the first ten minutes, but Eaton pulled that net. The recruits then played Shorty in centre, who succeeded in scoring their first goal. Twenty minutes found the recruits leading by 7 to 5. In the second twenty the recruits put it all over the "stars," but failed to make use of the opportunities afforded by the penalties, and the game ended in favor of the "stars" 13 to 11. The recruits certainly won on merit, but points count.

It is estimated that over two million men are either wounded, killed or missing as the result of the first eleven weeks of the war.

A sitting of the district court will be held in Blairmore on December 9th, and not November 9th as appeared in our issue last week.

Next Sunday will be observed as temperance Sunday throughout the province, and appropriate services will be conducted in all churches.

Major A. G. Reichen, who spent part of last week in town, went to Pincher Creek on Friday, and from there visited his ranch at Mountain Mill.

E. M. Brown will in future be stationed on the cap of one of the big smokestacks of the cement plant, where he will guard against the invasion of the enemy's troops with a Colt's automatic one-shooter.

The Blairmore quadrille club was organized at the opera house on Monday night, and the first dance under its auspices took place immediately following its organization. There was a large attendance, and the club has started out with a big membership.

During the early stages of the fire on Saturday morning, several high-charged electric wires were down in easy reach of the public, and serious consequences were probably averted by the presence of mind of Engineer Arthur Shearer, of the cement plant, who immediately cut off the current.

The Halloween programme was exceedingly interesting for the young and old alike, and until late hour mysterious occurrences took place. George now regrets and says: "We have done those things which we ought not to have done, and have left undone those things which we should have done, yet there is some class to us!"

The Methodist Church has sent to Sir Robert Borden a strong protest against the order of General Alderson authorizing a wet canteen for the Canadian troops. The message of protest reminds the prime minister that Russia has forbidden vodka and France absolute for the army, and in asking that Alderson's order be withdrawn questions the moral right of the general to authorize the canteen in the face of the practice of the Canadian militia department, and contrary to Canadian public opinion and the tacit understanding with Canadian motherhood.

Homestead Inspector Scott was in town on Tuesday.

D. J. Campbell, ex-sheriff, of Macleod, was in town on Monday.

Const. Buckley arrived from Macleod on Monday as an addition to the local police squad.

W. C. S. Holbrook was at Macleod on Sunday, where he attended the funeral of Mr. Macleod.

Our hockey enthusiasts are agitating for the erection of a skating rink for the approaching season, while the school boys are wondering if steps will be taken to replace the miniature bathing room recently destroyed by fire.

James Haddad, of Fernie, who left several months ago on a visit to his home in Assyria, has arrived in New York, accompanied by his uncle, having escaped serving in the Turkish army by means of forged passports which they bribed officials into giving them.

Arrangements have been completed for the location of the post office in the block owned by the Lethbridge Brewing & Malt Co., at the corner of Seventh Avenue and Victoria Street, where the rear end of the building is being partitioned off and re-arranged.

Rev. W. H. Muncester visited Dry Fork last Sunday afternoon, and raised the balance of revenue needed for the support of the missionary there during the summer. He also arranged for fortnightly services to be held through the winter. Mr. Muncester preached at Pincher Creek in the evening.

A mysterious regiment, supposedly Germans and Austrians, were seen climbing up the peaks of Turtle Mountain on Wednesday night, probably with intention of bowing up the heavens! Somebody started out on their trail, but returned, feeling that such a tribe should never be halted on a heavenlyward course. Each carried a lighted lantern, a canteen of lager beer and one of Benne's Bologna sausage.

On October the 21st, after several postponements on account of the weather, the school held its first field day. The weather man seemed determined not to give us any show, for after we had started the sports the wind came in from the east and under the day cold and miserable in spite of this, however, the various events were conducted with great enthusiasm by the children. One thing to be regretted is that the other schools of The Pass could not generally participate; but in this the weather was largely to blame. We would like, however, to say a good word for Mr. Baker, of the Paul

The following is the address which accompanied the Jewel:
Bro. Robert Niven, Past Grand, Lethbridge Lodge No. 2 of the I. O. O. F. We wish to take this opportunity to express to you our appreciation for the work which you have done for this lodge.

You have always been ready to do everything in your power to promote the welfare of this lodge and of the order, and you have exemplified the principles which are the corner stones of our beloved order. It is with a great deal of pleasure that we look back over the many pleasant evenings, which you have spent with us during the twenty-five years of your membership. As a small token of our appreciation we would ask you to accept this jewel and we earnestly hope that you will have the opportunity of wearing it on many occasions.

Bro. Niven, it affords me much pleasure to present you with this jewel and we hope and trust that you will be spared many years to continue in the good work of Oddfellowship, and that all these years may be years of happiness and prosperity.

Signed on behalf of Lethbridge Lodge No. 2, E. Theobald, N. G.
T. A. Marlow, R. S.

A man's animosity toward a political opponent is sometimes so bitter that it does not cease even when the opponent is dead.

A gentleman who had figured prominently suddenly came to the end of a long and useful life. On the day of the funeral one of the strong political enemies of the deceased was asked:

"Are you going to attend Mr. —'s funeral today?"

"No," responded the distinguished gentleman, deliberately, "but I wish you to understand I heartily approve of it."

school, who sent up a team for the football match. The boys were only small, but they played a plucky game and gave the big boys of the Blairmore school all the work they wished for in order to win. We hope the field day may become an annual event, participated in by all the schools around.

J. W. VERGE, Principal.
